Auburn Head Coach, Pat Dye

We made it kind of difficult on ourselves, but still at the same time they are a good football team. I am tremendously proud of our defense keeping them out of the endzone.

We came up with the key plays on the touchdown drive and when we were running out the clock.

You would have to think that this years LSU football team is a better team offensively than last years. The defensive staff did a great job planning for them.

There were a lot of key plays in the ball game. The punt return by (Shayne) Wasden certainly turned the crowd on.

The thing that makes you proud as a coach is that we try to get the team to pull together as one. That closeness makes the defense rise up a little bit. When we stopped them on third and one deep in their territory, that was probably the biggest play of the game.

We are still a very young football team in a lot of areas. I think we are a team that is going to get better every week.

We will probably play the best team on our schedule next week. I just hope we can go down to Tallahassee and be able to get back up for them.
